ARENAC COUNTY ABANDONED PROPERTY POLICY

Adopted: September 12, 2017

Abandoned or unattended property in or around county owned facilities presents security concerns for public safety. Abandoned property includes, but is not limited to: packages, bags, luggage, backpacks, or any other items not owned by county employees or county elected officials.

Any item left unattended in or around any county own facility, may be treated with suspicion.

Any item observed to be unattended, that may pose an immediate threat to the safety of the persons present, shall be reported to central dispatch via a 911 call and the area will be cleared. An appropriate first responder will respond to the location of said abandoned property to investigate same. If upon the investigation of the first responder, the item is deemed a hazard, the building evacuation policy shall be implemented. If the items is found to be safe, it shall be turned into the sheriff's office or returned to its owner.
